

COHIMBRE SON CUBANO pur!

From the Passionate East of Cuba

Cohimbre comes from the passionate Oriente de Cuba, the home of the Cuban Son.

First-Class Musicians

Cohimbre was founded in 1994 in Colombia (Las Tunas) by the brothers Leonel and Luis Son Cubano is more than traditional Cuban music.

Son Cubano is a symbol for Cuba - represented by Cohimbre with heart and soul:

lyric son fast guaracha
romantic bolero lively cha cha cha swinging mambo son montuno
rural guajira percussive afro

Oliva Salas and Juan Carlos Núñez Hinojosa.

In 1997 Cohimbre gained official recognition as professional band.

Popular in Trinidad de Cuba

In 1998 the musicians moved to Trinidad, a picturesque town on the south coast of Sancti Spíritus province.

Cohimbre is extremely popular as resident group at the bar Canchánchara in the historic old town of Trinidad.

The band is also a big hit at the Casa de la Trova and many other lively music bars in Trinidad.

Cohimbre is a word from the Afro-Cuban slang of Santiago de Cuba meaning 'movimiento' (movement), 'sabor' (pleasure) and 'buena suerte' (good luck).

classics like Guantanamera, Hasta Siempre, Dos Gardenias and Yolanda the quintet electrifies its audiences.

Let the spirit of 'musica cubana' lift and inspire you ...
